Excerpt from 2009 Commercials Contract section 46.E.1

Producer shall designate multi-service contract status on the contribution remittance reports filed with the Plans when contributions are tendered in connection with services related to a multiple-service agreement. Producer agrees to provide unredacted copies of all contracts relating to services provided under such multiple-service agreements to SAG and to the Plans at the time of submission of initial contribution reports to the Plans or, should Producer fail to do so, Producer agrees to provide such unredacted copies upon SAG's or the Plans' written request. If justified by unusual circumstances, Producer may request that SAG's or the Plans' representatives inspect the agreements at a mutually-agreed location in Los Angeles or New York. SAG will be entitled to demand unredacted copies of agreements inspected if needed solely for the purpose of arbitrating a dispute hereunder. As a condition of providing any copies of contracts, the Producer may require that either or both SAG and the Plans execute a confidentiality agreement substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A.
